Sharing Information: SBCWDB board members and employees are encouraged to share information with the community about SBCWDB activities in a manner that ensures fair and equal access by all. For example, access to information regarding the MCWDB's procurements for services shall be available at the same time and in the same manner to all potential bidders. Information shall not be individually provided to individual potential bidders because it could lead to that bidder's unfair advantage over others seeking to provide services.

Most documents reflecting the MCWDB's activities is public and subject to disclosure under the California Public Records Act. Because that law imposes specific disclosure requirements and provides for exemptions from disclosure, requests for SBCWDB information received by SBCWDB members and employees shall be directed to the Chair, who will disclose requested SBCWDB records in accordance with the law, as guided by the advice of counsel.

SBCWDB board members and employees shall not reveal attorney-client privileged communications, personnel information, or other confidential or legally protected information to the public.

Disclosure of Associations: SBCWDB board members and employees have professional and personal associations that yield significant benefit to the SBCWDB. When these associations raise the possibility of unfairness or conflict of interest in connection with a particular SBCWDB activity or decision, SBCWDB board members and employees shall take the initiative and shall disclose their association at a regularly convened, public SBCWDB meeting or committee meeting. Minutes of SBCWDB or committee meetings shall reflect such disclosures. If disclosure at a regularly scheduled SBCWDB or committee meeting is not practicable, such disclosures should be made in writing, as soon as possible, to the Chair.

If a SBCWDB board member or employee is in doubt about whether his or her association poses a fairness or conflict of interest issue, they shall err on the side of disclosure.

Disclosure of associations does not prohibit a SBCWDB member from voting or participating in other, unrelated SBCWDB business and decisions.

Sanctions: Where SBCWDB board members violate this policy, disciplinary action may be imposed, up to and including termination of board membership. The SBCWDB Executive Committee shall evaluate possible violations on a case-by-case basis and shall recommend to the full SBCWDB, if and what penalties, sanctions or other disciplinary actions are appropriate. Discipline, if any, shall be implemented by a majority vote of the SBCWDB at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

Where SBCWDB employees violate this policy, the question of discipline, if any, shall be referred to the San Benito County Human Resources Department for appropriate action
