More Information about UI Online

Tell me more about UI Online.

UI Online is part of the EDD's ongoing efforts to improve efficiency, increase access to UI services, and expedite benefit payments to unemployed workers. With UI Online you will be able to conduct routine business from the comfort of your own home without having to wait for the mail to arrive or speaking to an EDD representative.

For added convenience, UI Online Mobile is available for smartphone and tablet users.

UI Online makes it easy for you to:

- Certify for continuing benefits and report work and wages.*
- Get detailed payment and claim information.
- Reopen an existing claim to resume UI benefit payments without speaking to a representative.*
- Update contact information such as your phone number and address, quickly and easily online.

**Customers on Partial or Work Sharing claims are unable to certify for benefits or reopen an existing claim using UI Online at this time. However, they can use many of the other features of UI Online.*

You can also get a quick snapshot of your claim from your UI Online home page:

- Get important notifications such as when it's time to certify for benefits or reopen your claim.
- View all scheduled appointments and change a phone interview to a later date.
- See your claim summary including last payment issued, remaining balance, weekly benefit amount, and work search requirements.

What is the EDD Customer Account Number?

The EDD takes the security of confidential information very seriously and continuously looks for ways to further protect customers' personal information. In addition to the safeguards built into the EDD's systems to prevent and detect fraud, the EDD has implemented the use of the EDD Customer Account Number. This number may be used as an alternate identification number when conducting business with the EDD but will not replace a Social Security number (SSN) at this time. It is also required to register for UI Online. Remember, never share your personal information with anyone, including your EDD Customer Account Number.

Register today and enjoy the many benefits and conveniences of UI Online.

The EDD is an equal opportunity employer/program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities.
